

Michael Timmins Biography

Michael Timmins is Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer for EducationQuest Foundation in Lincoln, Neb.

Timmins oversees all finance and accounting operations for the foundation including oversight of a permanent endowment through which EducationQuest funds its programs and services.

Prior to joining EducationQuest, Timmins was Chief Financial Officer and Human Resources Director for Nebraska Children and Families Foundation. He held previous executive positions at OFFWIRE, Inc., iUniverse, and Snyder Industries.

Timmins is a Certified Nonprofit Accounting Professional and a member of the Society of Human Resource Management, American Institute of CPAs, Nonprofit Association of the Midlands, and is Treasurer of the Christus Foundation.

Timmins is a graduate of Bellevue University where he earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in Business Administration and a Bachelor of Arts degree in Accounting.

EducationQuest Foundation is a nonprofit organization with a mission to improve access to higher education in Nebraska. Headquartered in Lincoln, EducationQuest provides free college planning services, need-based scholarship programs, college access grants for high schools, college access resources for middle schools, and outreach services for community agencies.