

Regan Anson Biography

Regan Anson is Vice President of Communications, overseeing EducationQuest's branding, advertising, marketing, public relations, and media relations efforts.

Prior to joining EducationQuest, Anson was Executive Director of Nebraska Impact and the Nebraska 150 Celebration. She previously served as Director of Marketing and Communications at Peru State College, Communications Director for the Nebraska Attorney General, and Deputy Communications Director for the Nebraska Governor.

Anson is President-Elect of HopeSpoke, a Lincoln-based organization that works to ensure healthy futures for children and their families. She previously served on the Governor's Task Forces for Disaster Recovery and Food Security, and as Treasurer of Governor Ricketts' 2019 Inaugural Ball Committee. Anson is a graduate of the Nebraska State Chamber of Commerce's Leadership Nebraska Program, and is a past member of Women Investing in Nebraska, the Council for the Advancement and Support of Education, the Nebraska Press Women Association, and the American Marketing Association.

A native of Brunswick, Nebraska, Anson graduated magna cum laude with a Bachelor of Science degree in journalism/public relations from the University of Nebraska at Kearney, and earned a Master of Science degree in organizational management with emphases in entrepreneurship and economic development from Peru State College. Anson also holds a certificate in fundraising management from the University of Nebraska at Omaha.

EducationQuest Foundation is a nonprofit organization with a mission to improve access to higher education in Nebraska. Headquartered in Lincoln, EducationQuest provides free college planning services, need-based scholarship programs, college access grants for high schools, college access resources for middle schools, and outreach services for community agencies.