

Brandon Farringer
Biography

Brandon Farringer is accounting manager for EducationQuest Foundation. Farringer helps manage the Foundation's investments, reconciles accounts, and assists with audits. He previously worked as an accountant with Williams Group Financial and Nelnet.

A native of Boone, Iowa, Farringer holds a bachelor's degree in accounting from the University of Nebraska-Lincoln and an associate's degree from Southeast Community College.

EducationQuest Foundation is a nonprofit organization with a mission to improve access to higher education in Nebraska. Headquartered in Lincoln, EducationQuest provides free college planning services, need-based scholarship programs, college access grants for high schools, college access resources for middle schools, and outreach services for community agencies.