

Stacy Seim Biography

Stacy Seim is a College Planning Coordinator for EducationQuest Foundation in Kearney, Nebraska. She has been with EducationQuest since 1997 previously serving as a College Planning Specialist.

Seim meets with students and parents at EducationQuest's College Planning Office to help them research college options, find scholarship resources, learn about financial aid, complete college applications, and complete the FAFSA (Free Application for Federal Student Aid). She periodically provides the same services at high schools in the Kearney region.

Seim also conducts financial aid and college planning presentations at college fairs, educational planning programs, financial aid programs, and other education-related events.

Seim graduated from Nebraska Wesleyan University in 1996 with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Psychology. She continued her education at Bellevue University, earning a Master's of Business Administration degree in 2004.

EducationQuest Foundation is a nonprofit organization with a mission to improve access to higher education in Nebraska. Headquartered in Lincoln, EducationQuest provides free college planning services, need-based scholarship programs, college access grants for high schools, college access resources for middle schools, and outreach services for community agencies.
