

Victor Garcia Biography

Victor Garcia is a Bilingual College Planning Specialist at EducationQuest Foundation in Omaha, Nebraska – a position he has held since 2012.

Garcia meets with students and parents to help them research college options, find scholarship resources, learn about financial aid, complete college applications, and complete the FAFSA (Free Application for Federal Student Aid). He provides services in both English and Spanish.

Garcia also conducts financial aid and college planning presentations at college fairs, educational planning programs, financial aid programs, and other education-related events.

Garcia previously worked as a Spanish translator/interpreter and has recorded radio voice-over scripts in Spanish and English.

Garcia earned a bachelor's degree in Spanish translation/interpretation with a minor in broadcast journalism from University of Nebraska at Kearney in 2010. While there, he also helped found the Nontraditional Student Organization.

EducationQuest Foundation is a nonprofit organization with a mission to improve access to higher education in Nebraska. Headquartered in Lincoln, EducationQuest provides free college planning services, need-based scholarship programs, college access grants for high schools, college access resources for middle schools, and outreach services for community agencies.
