

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
February 22, 2022, 11:30 a.m. CT

MEDIA CONTACT
Regan Anson, 402.479.6662 or regana@educationquest.org

EducationQuest to host FREE Virtual College Fair March 1, registration open NOW *Three $500 scholarships to be awarded

(Lincoln, Neb.) EducationQuest will host a Virtual College Fair from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. CT Tuesday, March 1. Registration for the free event is open now at <https://eqf.org/collegefair>.

Students and parents will have the opportunity to visit 65 college booths and chat with college representatives.

Following the Virtual College Fair, three $500 scholarships will be awarded to eligible attendees who have visited a minimum of five college booths. Attendees who meet the requirements are automatically registered for the drawing.

EducationQuest Senior Vice President Daphne Hall said, “EducationQuest’s Virtual College Fairs are for anyone interested in learning more about college, whether you are a high school student, a parent or a school counselor. The Virtual College Fairs are an opportunity to connect with colleges from across the region and learn more about their offerings in a way that is safe, convenient and, best of all, free!”

Additional information about the Virtual College Fair and scholarship is available at www.educationquest.org.

###

EducationQuest Foundation is a nonprofit organization with a mission to improve access to higher education in Nebraska. Headquartered in Lincoln, EducationQuest provides free college planning services, need-based scholarship programs, college access grants for high schools, college access resources for middle schools, and outreach services for community agencies. For more information, visit EducationQuest.org or call 800.303.3745.