

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
February 9, 2022, 2:30 p.m. CT

MEDIA CONTACT
Regan Anson, 402.479.6662 or regana@educationquest.org

Three Nebraska high school students awarded $500 Virtual College Fair scholarships from EducationQuest Spring Virtual College Fair set for Tuesday, March 1

(Lincoln, Neb.) Three high school students from across Nebraska have been awarded $500 scholarships for participating in EducationQuest's fall 2021 Virtual College Fairs.

Recipients are listed below alphabetically by hometown.

- Elkhorn: Madelyn Schuchardt, a junior at Elkhorn South High School
- Hartington: Jack Stevens, a junior at Cedar Catholic High School
- Sterling: Ella Wingert, a senior at Sterling High School

Students will have another opportunity to win one of three $500 scholarships during EducationQuest's spring Virtual College Fair, which is set for Tuesday, March 1. Registration for the event opens Tuesday, Feb. 22 at eqf.org/collegefair.

To be eligible for the scholarship, students must meet the following requirements:

- U.S. citizen or legal resident
- Nebraska resident
- Attend a Nebraska high school and be in grades 9-12
- Visit at least 5 college booths at an EducationQuest Virtual College Fair

Official eligibility rules are available here.*

###

EducationQuest Foundation is a nonprofit organization with a mission to improve access to higher education in Nebraska. Headquartered in Lincoln, EducationQuest provides free college planning services, need-based scholarship programs, college access grants for high schools, and outreach services for community agencies. For more information, visit EducationQuest.org or call 800.303.3745.